Kristin's Quilt As You Go Mug Rug Pattern

Materials- Fabric and batting scraps

Backing- 8 x 10 inch piece of fabric

Batting- 8 x 10 inch piece of batting, I used warm and natural.

Top- 4 strips of coordinating fabric cut 2 x 5.5 inches

1 rectangle of a focus fabric that coordinates with strips cut 3.5 x 6.5 inches

Binding- 36 inches or WOF, cut 2.5 or 2.25 inches wide. Folded in half lengthwise and ironed.

Directions-

1. Lay batting on top of backing.
2. Lay 1st strip along upper edge of sandwich approx. ½ inch in from edge and ½ inch in from side. Pin in place.

3. Lay 2nd strip face down on top of this strip. Sew ¼ inch from edge through all layers. Open and press. Pin this in place.

4. Place 3rd strip face down on top of 2nd and sew a ¼ inch seam. Open and press. Pin.

5. Place 4th strip face down on 3rd strip and sew  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch seam, Open and press. Pin.

6. Now lay rectangle face down across all 4 strips and sew a  $\frac{1}{4}$  inch seam. Open and press. Pin.

7. Stitch around top. Trim batting and backing to top edges.
8. Add binding. Sew binding to back. Flip to front. Press and sew around binding to secure to front.
9. Have Coffee!
10. This is my personal pattern. Copyright 2018! I used this for my Quilt-a-thon to raise money for the Dana Farber Jimmy Fund Marathon Walk!
