

Guild Meetings

The Guild holds meetings at the Saugus Senior Center (466 Central Street, Saugus, MA 01906) on the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00pm (unless otherwise noted on the website). July and August meetings are informal Sit & Sew gatherings.

Our Members enjoy a variety of activities at the monthly meetings including speakers, workshops, charity projects, raffles, show and tell, vendors, member demos, creative quilting challenges, auctions and refreshments.

Check out our website www.hqgsaugus.org to see what is happening!

Non-member guests may attend any monthly meeting. Guests pay $5.00 unless there is an outside speaker. Then the fee is $10.00. Guests may also attend Guild sponsored special activities on a space available basis.

Mission Statement

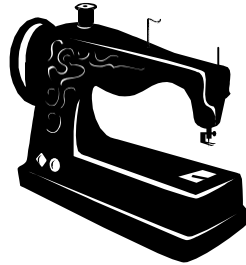

The mission of The Hammersmith Quilters Guild is to promote the appreciation, enjoyment, and knowledge of quilting as an art form and as a craft to its membership and to the general public.

The Guild encourages quilting for the benefit of charitable causes and provides opportunities to broaden quilting skills through educational programs, meetings, and workshops.

The Guild hopes to foster camaraderie and inspiration among quilters throughout the greater North Shore of Massachusetts and offers support to the New England Quilt Museum in Lowell, Massachusetts.
